At the same time you will have fun exploring this great and most international of cities and visit some of London's incredible cultural and commercial attractions with other students from around the world.

“The teachers are great. They are all very informative and enthusiastic about the course which has really inspired me to continue my studies in this field.”

Emma Gatej from Romania

“The course has taught me so much. It is especially very fascinating that people from other countries have very differing views on law and politics and that we get to voice these in group discussions, which makes the classes very dynamic. I found the trips really interesting, especially the Parliament building and University visits were amazing. Thank you for this unforgettable experience, I really enjoyed my stay and I am looking forward to coming again!”

English Language and Literature

English teaching is an important and integral aspect of the summer school. The content of English lessons is dependent upon the student's ability and subject pathway, as well as the specialisms of the teaching staff. Lessons are interactive and designed to be enjoyable!

Upon entry, students are given an assessment to determine their level of English, students are then allocated to a class based on their ability. Teaching content and styles will vary according to the teachers, who will respond and adapt to the needs of the students. At all levels, students will be encouraged to expand their vocabulary, improve their grammar and advance their spoken English.

Indicative content may include:

- Intermediate: grammar and vocabulary, spoken language practice including discussion
- Upper-intermediate: vocabulary, spoken language practice including debating and speech writing
- Advanced: fiction and non-fiction texts, writing practice in different forms and styles
- Proficient: literature based tasks and language analysis
