

Los Angeles Experience

Northridge

About the Centre

Northridge is a neighborhood of Los Angeles, so close in fact that it was known for a period of time as North Los Angeles. It has one of the lowest population densities in Los Angeles, which means that traffic and space are less of an issue here. There is a main street with shops, restaurants, and grocery stores as well as a fashion mall.

Campus

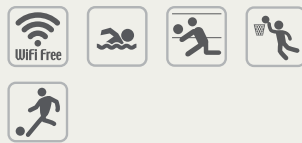

The Campus is located at California State University, Northridge Campus (CSUN). CSUN is the largest campus in the California State University system. It is a sprawling campus with sports fields, state of the art buildings, pools, gardens, and a housing village. The accommodations are within a 2-minute walk to the refectory and a 20-minute walk to the classroom facilities. The modern refectory has a designer Asian Fusion room, grill station, entrée, salad, and dessert stations. The main street through the town is located just a 20-minute walk from the campus and has a pharmacy, food stores, and restaurants. 10 different bus lines stop on the campus including 2 lines that connect with the metro system of Los Angeles. The campus is secured by the local police force and is so picturesque that it is the site of Hollywood filming on a weekly basis.
